The three games of wrestling, horse racing, and archery had been recorded in the 13rd century book The Secret History of the Mongols. It formally commemorates the 1921 Revolution, when Mongolia declared itself independent of China. Women have started participating in the archery and girls in the horse-racing games, but not in Mongolian wrestling.

The biggest festival is held in the Mongolian capital Ulaanbaatar, during the National Holiday from July 10th-July 12th in the National Sports Stadium. It begins with an elaborate introduction ceremony featuring dancers, athletes, horse riders, and musicians. After the ceremony, the competitions begin. Another popular Naadam activity is the playing of games using shagai, sheep knuckles that serve as game pieces and tokens of both divination and friendship.

Next Expedition to Bagazarin Chuluu (Rock Formations) and to Tsagaan Suvarga got its name because its shape resembles relict Buddhist stupas or pagodas.

Explore Gobi Desert-is the source of many important fossil finds, including the first dinosaur eggs. Bactrian Camel riding, meeting nomadic people, staying in a traditional tent, seeing grasslands and beautiful vistas.

Explore Yolyn Am Canyon in Gobi Desert. Climb up the towering piles of the largest Khongor sand dunes. Expedition to the Spectacular Flaming Cliffs, where many fossilized dinosaur bones and eggs have been found.

Visit Karakorum and the Erdene Zuu Monastery in the UNESCO World Heritage Orkhon Valley.
We would be pleased to have you join us!

- The Mongolian National Wrestling: This spectacular event takes place in the Central Stadium. There are a total of 512 fighters, of which only one (1) will be the winner, losing the first to touch the ground, except for hands and feet. The wrestlers honor the judges and the public with the eagle dance before to start the round of matches, and the winner also performs the eagle dance after finishing each match. The title of Nachin or Falcón is given to a fighter who wins 5 rounds, Zaan or Elefante is a winner of 7 rounds. The wrestler who wins all 9 rounds becomes the national wrestling champion and is awarded the title of Arslan or Leon. A wrestler, who has been a Lion twice, is honored with the title of Avarga or Champion.

• Archery: Archery competitions had great military importance in the times of the Mongol Empire. The archers line up and shoot arrows at the target which are the hollow balls of fur stacked in a pyramid shape.

The target consists of 360 leather rings fixed to the wall 40-50 cm high and 4 long. Men and women shoot 40 and 20 arrows respectively. Judges score a hit shot or a missed shot. If the archer is correct, the judges turn their faces towards the archer with their arms raised and sing the praise song. If the archer is correct, the judges turn their faces towards the archer with their arms raised and sing the praise song. The winner of archery is awarded a title Erkhin Mergen Kharvaach, which means Archer of Greater Wisdom.

• Horse races: they take place in the steppes with 1800-2000 horses and a distance between 15 to 30kms. This is a tough test of strength and mastery for riders of different ages, from 3 to 10 years old.

The riders are girls and boys. They are races designed to value the horse and not the rider, if the rider falls and the horse crosses the finish line first, he is the winner. In addition, the riders do not exceed 10 years. In the horse race, more than 1,800 horses, divided into 6 age groups, take part in the races. The horses compete in the 35km distance, and the colts compete in the 15km distance.

• The launch of the taba (shagai in Mongolian): It consists of throwing a bone with the fingers and trying to hit two tabas placed on a board about 10m away. Shagai games are especially popular during Naadam. In the shagai game, the thrown shagai usually lands on one of the following sides: horse, camel, sheep, or goat. A fifth side, empty, is possible on uneven ground. The Mongolians venerate some parts of the bones of animals that are part of their domestic livestock and use them both in their religious rites and in their traditional entertainment and games. Knuckleball shooting is one of those traditional games, very popular, which is practiced in teams of six to eight members. On a smooth wooden plank, players throw thirty marble tablets – similar to dominoes – against a target made up of ram's paws to get them to fall within the defined target area. While practicing shooting, the players sing traditional melodies and songs typical of this game. Each member of a team has their own game instruments, made by hand, and wears clothing with badges that indicate their classification and merits. The bonds of friendship between the members of a team are unbreakable and the players are guided by rules of conduct based on dignity and mutual respect. The rites, knowledge and skills related to bone shooting, as well as the techniques for manufacturing instruments, accessories and equipment are passed on from masters to apprentices. The shooting of the knucklebones creates a propitious climate so that, learning from each other and helping each other, the players contribute to the success of their respective teams, as well as to their personal development and the general well-being of society. This traditional game brings together people of different origins, stimulates their interaction, fosters respect for others – particularly older people – and reinforces social cohesion. Inscribed in 2014 (9.COM) in the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Today, we will visit the Monument to the Mongol States located on a hill overlooking the city of Karakorum (Kharkhorin), on the bank of the Orkhon River. It was built in 2004. The monument consists of a large pile of stones (a shamanic ovo) carefully assembled into a cone shape, approximately the same size as a tipi, with nine posts protruding from the top. This structure is mounted on a stone and concrete platform and is surrounded by three walls that represent three sections of a circle. The outer sides of these walls feature three colorful mosaics representing three maps, one for each of the empires.

1. First, there was the Xiongnu Empire, a confederation of nomadic tribes that lived on the steppes from about the 3rd century BC. until the 1st century AD.
2. The Turkish Khaganate Empire followed, established by the Göktürks in 682 and lasting only until 744.
3. Finally, and famously, Genghis Khan founded the Mongol Empire of the 13th and 14th centuries.

The iconic place of the Mongol Empire in culture, combined with the shamanic symbolism of the ovo at the center of the monument, prompts people to leave offerings of vodka, milk, tea, rice and other edible delicacies that inevitably attract birds and some than another herd of goats and sheep passing by. You can also find several animal skulls around the monument, completing the surreal scene. It is no coincidence that the Monument of The Imperial Map is located in Kharkhorin, as this city (then called Karakorum) was the capital of the Mongol Empire under Genghis Khan's successor, Ogedei Khan. The Imperial Map Monument is a great vantage point from which to look out over the city of Kharkhorin and the Orkhon River, and imagine what this collection of dirt roads and low-rise buildings may have looked like in its glory days. Also, today, we will visit to the legendary Erdene zuu (Hundred Treasures) Monastery, the Turtle monument, and the Karakorum museum, to see the relics of the ancient capital of the Mongol Empire. The Erdene Zuu Buddhist Monastery with its 108 stupas and the first Buddhist Lamasery (16th century) was the most important religious seat. Currently it constitutes an impressive sight, with its walls, stupas and temples, occupying an enclosure of 400 square meters, and surrounded by the steppe. The construction was continued by his son 'Ogedei' Khan, after his death. After 40 years, 'Kublai Khan' (grandson of Genghis Khan and host of Marco Polo) moved the capital of the Empire to Beijing (Peking-Yuan dynasty), already invaded. In the year 1792, there were 62 temples left and more than 10,000 Lamas. In the year 1930, the Stalinist purges destroyed most of their temples and the Lamas were banished to die in Siberia. Of its more than one hundred temples, only three have survived to our era, it remains the most outstanding cultural vestige of Mongolia. Mongol lunch is included front Erdene zuu monastery. After, departure via Karakorum by asphalt road (*with the help of the Turkish Government) in the direction of the Gokhturk museum in Khoshoo Tsaidam (Turkish Memorials, about 47.2km/30miles, 1hr), in honor of the Turkish princes in the Orkhon Valley (about 47.2km/30miles, 1hr from Karakorum), from the early 8th century Bilge Khan and Kul Tigin with their Orkhon inscriptions, written in the Old Turkic alphabet, which are admitted as the most impressive monuments of the nomadic Gokturk Khaganate. They were excavated and deciphered by Russian archaeologists in the years 1889-93. Next, departure by embankment (off road) towards Lake Ugii (about 32.3km, 1hr), an appropriate place for birds such as: swans, geese, cranes, ducks, pigeons, storks and other migratory species are cited in this area at the end of April, May and throughout the summer). Lake Ugii is located in the province of Uvurkhangai, where many migratory birds arrive at certain times of the year due to the abundance of fish. It is of great importance as a breeding and stopping place for waterfowl, for example, the white-necked crane (Grus vipio), the swan goose (Anser cygnoides), the great bustard (Otis tarda), the duck (Oxyura leucocephala), cranes common (Grus Grus), demoiselle cranes (Anthropoides virgo), black storks (Ciconia nigra), and species declared vulnerable or endangered in the Red Book. We will be able to admire and photograph a great variety of species such as the White-necked Crane and the Monk Crane surrounded by a beautiful valley where herds of sheep, horses, bulls, and yaks graze. Over 200 species of birds have been recorded at Lake Ugii, and where there are so many fish there are sure to be plenty of waterfowl; black-tailed godwit; Swan goose; Great Crested Grebe; whooper swan; Bar-headed goose; Rudy Shelduck; common goldeneye; Common Crane; and Northern Lapwing. Migratory birds arrive from May to June, from as far away as Siberia and the Himalayas.

We visit the Ornithological local museum for observation. Drive back to Karakorum (about 80 km/50 miles). Overnight in Tourist Gers Camp in Karakorum. (B)(L)(D)

July 21, Day 14-Breakfast. 07:00AM-Meet Samar Magic Tours team. Drive Further to explore Hustain Nuruu National Park (about 280 km/174 miles, +5 hours drive) of the Wild Horses Przewaslki or Takhi (as known by the Mongolians). The Takhi is the last species of wild horse left on the planet. In 1878, the Polish-born Russian geographer and naturalist Nikolai Mikhailovich Przewaslki found a new species of wild horse in Mongolia, known locally as Takhi, and took several foals to European zoos. The only way to prevent the complete extinction of the last species of wild horse was to reintroduce it into the wild. In 1975, the Dutchman Ian Bouman and his wife, and other entities that joined later, created the Foundation for the Conservation and Protection of the Przewalski Horse (FPPPH), with the aim of saving the Takhi from extinction through acclimatization. of the zoo specimens in open field pastures, for later release into the wild. In 1992, the FPPPH brought the first 15 horses to the Hustain Nuruu area in Mongolia, to reintroduce them to their original habitat. Currently, the population of takhi in the wild in Hustain Nuruu National Park reaches 220 individuals. The practice of taming wild animals and then returning them to the wild is truly rare. Visit to a small museum, about the history of the Hustain Nuruu National Park, about the founders, and the reintroduction of the Przewaslki or Takhi wild horses in their original habitat. Excursion through the interior of the Hustain Nuruu National Park, exploration and observation of wild horses (*bring binoculars and drome). Drive back to Ulaanbaatar (about 120 kms/75miles. Shopping for souvenirs and cashmere. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight at selected and confirmed hotel. Dinner is not included.

July 22, Day 15-Breakfast. The rooms must be vacated before 12 noon on the day of departure. Meeting with Samar Magic Tours at the hotel reception. Transfer to Ulaanbaatar `` Chinggis Khan´´ New Airport (52 km/33 miles, +2 hrs drive). Departure Mongolia (B). Tour Ends.
